About Me

As a skilled Full-Stack Software Engineer with extensive experience in leading product and consulting companies, my expertise lies in designing and developing high-performance, scalable, and highly available applications. I specialize in backend technologies (Spring Boot, Kotlin, Java), frontend development (React, JavaScript, TypeScript), DevOps (Jenkins, GitLab), and test automation. I have an agile mindset and extensive experience working in agile environments. Outside of work, I enjoy sports and exploring new cultures.
